“Some projects are a complete 100% joy to work on. Harrison’s effortless guitar playing and evocative voice, coupled with the bands left field arrangements really set this EP apart.” - Marty Brown

“Melbourne singer-songwriter Harrison Brown has just let us in on ‘Be Free’, the first track taken from his forthcoming debut EP. It’s a rich slice of acoustic folk, anchored around Harrison’s killer vox but bolstered by the presence of a full band. Gradually building up to a rumbling climax, it’s definitely whetted our appetite for the EP, recorded with Marty Brown (Clare Bowditch, Anna Cordell, Flyying Colours).” - Tone Deaf
